

【Taitung District Prosecutors Office and Community Service Workers Unite for Beach Cleanup — Protecting the Ocean Together and Promoting a New Spirit of Giving Back to Society】

Date: August 30, 2025 Issued by: Taitung District Prosecutors Office

On August 30, 2025, the Taitung District Prosecutors Office, in cooperation with the Taimali Township Office and the Air Force 427th Wing, held a beach cleanup at Jinlun Beach.

Led by Chief Prosecutor Fang-Chou Hsiao, prosecutors, staff, and community service participants worked together to remove marine waste such as plastic bottles, fishing gear, Styrofoam fragments, and old tires. Chief Prosecutor Hsiao encouraged participants to protect nature through action, while Chief Probation Officer Yue Jui-Hsia reminded them to stay safe and cooperate as a team.

The event embodied the core values of the social labor program, fostering environmental awareness and civic responsibility, and achieving the dual goals of judicial correction and social welfare.
